Coro Sinfonico Juvenil Simon Bolivar de Venezuela | Ninos cantores de Venezuela | Schola Cantorum de Venezuela | Schola Juvenil de Venezuela

GUSTAVO DUDAMEL conductor.

Seen in hundreds of theatres across the North and South America, this is the emotionally charged culmination of Gustavo Dudamel's 2012 Mahler Project in Los Angeles and Caracas: 1400 American and Venezuelan performers assembled for a once-in-a-generation event and one of the most ambitious live recordings ever made. "This was not just a grand performance, it was a communal one. The chorus, which included 400 children that sang from memory, was simply indescribable as the many became one" (Los Angeles Times).

Stravinsky's "Pulcinella" - The original music

Adriano Brandão

Published on Oct 5, 2013

This video compiles all the music used by Igor Stravinsky as the basis of his ballet "Pulcinella"(1920). It's mainly Italian baroque music, coming from such sources as operas by Pergolesi, trio sonatas by Gallo and harpsichord suites by Monza, but Stravinsky unknowingly used music by a non-Italian composer (Wassenaer, a Dutch) and even by a 19th-century romantic composer, Parisotti.

Have fun!

38. Dvorak, New World Symphony--dazzling performance, amazing sound quality

Gimnazija Kranj Great Christmas Concert 2018 - The Last Journey Home. Gimnazija Kranj Symphony Orchestra under the baton of maestro Nejc Bečan did again an amazing job. The Orchestra sold out the Gallus Hall in Cankarjev dom Slovenia in short seconds. This performance is a milestone. Primož Zevnik, director, recorded it with 17 cameras. Gimnazija Kranj kids play amazingly. Just enjoy this powerful musical spectacle. The Symphony No. 9 in E minor, "From the New World", Op. 95, B. 178 (Czech: Symfonie č. 9 e moll „Z nového světa“), popularly known as the New World Symphony, was composed by Antonín Dvořák in 1893 while he was the director of the National Conservatory of Music of America from 1892 to 1895. It is by far his most popular symphony, and one of the most popular of all symphonies. In older literature and recordings, this symphony was – as for its first publication – numbered as Symphony No. 5. Astronaut Neil Armstrong took a tape recording of the New World Symphony along during the Apollo 11 mission, the first Moon landing, in 1969. The symphony was completed in the building that now houses the Bily Clocks Museum.

39. Handel's Messiah
